2012 Heritage Talk Series

A series of small group conversations at Historic Deepwood Estate with the focus on remembering and preserving pieces of the past.

#1 Local Authors Present Salem History January 24

Kimberli Fitzgerald, Christy Van Heukelem, Deb Meaghers, and Lynn Mack review their books on local history. A fun evening!

#2 Northwest Art & Artists February 25

Special guest Cindy Day of Et Cetera Antiques discusses period paintings with examples for review and discussion.

#3 Building the Whole through Bits and Pieces April 3

Join Bo Sullivan, historian at Rejuvenation and owner of Arcalus Period Design in Portland, to explore how Victorian interiors are the sum of their many parts.

#4 Architect Extraordinaire W.C. Knighton May 22

Bob Clay joins us to talk about notable Oregon architect W.C. Knighton and some of the iconic structures he designed in Salem and across the state, (including Deepwood!)

Free! ...Open to the public!
Space is limited; Reservations Recommended.

Willamette Women: Our History is Our Strength
2nd Annual Heritage Extravaganza

Jan. 21 – March 12th, 2011

Willamette Heritage Center (Mission Mill)

This 2nd Annual Heritage Extravaganza gives Mid-Valley heritage, cultural and history museums and organizations the opportunity to shine a light on women from their communities. Throughout the exhibition's run, visitors can take a walk through the history of women in the Mid-Valley, as they view a wide array of local, regional and nationally important objects and images.

Come see our exhibit ... Free to Friends of Deepwood Members

EXHIBIT

“Celebrating the 30’s and 40’s”

February 2nd -May 15 2012

Times were lean, but the fashions and glassware were stunning! Join us for a look at the wedding and work fashions of the 30’s and 40’s, displays of pink depression glass, and vintage hankies.

Heritage Talk Series #1: “Local Authors & Salem History”

January 24th, 6-8 p.m.

FREE, reservations recommended

Four local authors join us for this fun evening of local history; book signing follows.

New for 2012! First Saturday Tea & Tour @ 10 for $10

What a great way to meet up with friends and enjoy a Saturday morning!

The first Saturday of most months we will be offering tea and a scone as part of the 10:00 a.m. tour. Tour begins promptly at 10:00, but guests are welcome to walk the grounds or gather in the solarium on the front porch in advance of the start time. Tours will end at 11:00.

$10 (Member price $5—must show current membership card) Reservations required. 503.363.1825

February 4th; March 3rd; April 7th; May 5th; July 7th, August 4th, September 1st, November 3rd.

Valentine Card Class with Mac

Tuesday February 7th 1-3 pm

Valentine, O’ Valentine

$17 .00 reservations required

Come spend an afternoon making valentines for those special people in your life. You'll make two very cute heart-shaped baskets to hold small goodies -- perhaps a few chocolates. What do you call two birds in love? Join us to find the answer revealed in one of the cards you'll make. Another card will be a double slider card and still another will have a pop-up center fold. Of course you'll want to bring goodies to share with our afternoon tea.

Valentine Tea

Friday, February 14th, 11:30 am

$30.00 per person, reservations required

Celebrate this special day in style! Bring your favorite girlfriend or the object of your desire & enjoy a 3 course tea in the Deepwood parlors followed by a tour of the home and exhibits.

Heritage Talk Series #2: Northwest Art & Artists Saturday, February 25th, 10 am -noon
FREE, reservations recommended

Antique collector, art enthusiast, dealer, appraiser, and educator Cindy Day of Et Cetera Antiques shares some tips and trade secrets. Period paintings will be brought to help train your eye. A must attend event!

Pouring History Tea #1 Tuesday, March 13th, 11:30 a.m.
All about Hankies Tea $30.00 per person, reservations required

Linen expert and third generation antique dealer Lisa Hand of Wind Horse Antiques will join us to talk about the small fabric beauties called hankies and share many from her private collection. A sumptuous tea with a helping of history on the side!

Card Class with Mac Tuesday March 20th 1-3 pm
Spring into Spring! $17.00, reservations required

Spring is always such a great time when flowers begin to bloom, the grass turns greens and grows rapidly so you get to exercise behind the lawnmower for a few weeks. So, come relax while you're designing spring and Easter cards showcasing many of these spring flowers. We may even put in a bit of grass that doesn't need mowing. There will be beautiful imported stickers and an opportunity to try your hand at painting with Smooch. You'll want to bring a goody to enjoy and share with tea.

Erythonium Native Plant Festival and Sale Friday March 30th 10 am -3 pm
Saturday March 31st 10 am -3 pm

Guided nature trail walks, plants for sale, informational booths A great way to kick start your spring! For more information refer to back cover or visit www.HistoricDeepwoodEstate.org

Heritage Talk Series #3: Building the Whole Tuesday April 3rd, 6-8 pm
Through Bits and Pieces FREE, reservations recommended

Join Bo Sullivan, historian at Rejuvenation and owner of Arcalus Period Design in Portland, to explore how Victorian interiors are the sum of their many parts, using Historic Deepwood as a spontaneous case study. Bo will also share rare images of 1890's homes and décor, many in color, drawn from the Arcalus Period Design Archive.

Letter from the Director

Greetings and Best Wishes for a happy and healthy new year. The little elves here at Deepwood have been busy, busy, busy, during the holiday season working up a full calendar with lots of events for the coming year. We'll have a First Saturday Tea & Tour each month with fresh scones, a great lineup of Heritage Talk Speakers and of course our ever popular teas! Take a look—we're sure you can find something to enjoy while supporting the Friends of Deepwood and our preservation of Deepwood. Hope to see you soon!

Very Truly Yours,
 Lois Cole
